

Fall 2017 Parent Orientation Overview

Parent Orientation is offered each fall semester during the first half of the first day of New Student Orientation. is not mandatory. Parents & Family who are not able to attend orientation can request that the Parent Manual be sent to them. Please email your name, your student's name, and your mailing address to receive a copy of the manual.

In an effort to best serve our visiting parents, please RSVP to the Parent Orientation by emailing studentaffairs@mcnallysmith.edu. Please list your name(s), number of family members attending, the name of your student, and designate if you require any accommodations to participate.

Wednesday, August 30, 2017 Parent Orientation Schedule

9:00 am	New Student & Family Orientation Check-in Begins - Beverages & Morning Treats Served	Atrium - 1st Floor
10:00 am	Welcome Presentation with President Harry Chalmiers, Dean of Academic Affairs, John Krogh, Senior Director of Student Affairs, Susan Brezny, Director of Admissions, Matt Edlund and the Fall Orientation Leaders!	History Theatre
10:30 am	A snapshot of the information your student will be learning during their three days of New Student Orientation, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • safety & security • support • services • expectations of students Presentation of the Center for Creative Careers & Teaching for Tomorrow. Featuring: Jeff Aalbers, Sr. Director Administrative Services/Safety Director Susan Brezny, Senior Director of Student Affairs/Access & Disability Services Coordinator Julia King, Bursar Scott LeGere, Creative Director of the CCC & Music Business Department Head	History Theatre
12:00 pm	Q&A
12:30 pm	Box lunch in the Sound Bite Café

After lunch feel free to visit the Bookstore (outside of the Sound Bite Café). You can also visit with the Bursar and Financial Aid, located on the lower level of the 26th Exchange St. building (across Exchange St. from the main campus).